Every little helps—especially little kids when you're going down hill. "Bobbie, why did you take your little sister's candy and eat it?" Why did not you ask her if you could have it?" "Why, I did, mamma, and she said I couldn't."

Filling a long-felt need in the community, and giving further impetus to the campaign now being conducted for the betterment of the health of Honolulu, a dispensary tomorrow will be opened at Waikiki, possibly in the vicinity of the Catholic church, by the Palama Settlement. This announcement was made this morning by James A. Rath, headworker of the settlement, who today is making a selection of the site. This new dispensary will cater to the needs of the residents of Waikiki and Kapaeha. Since the establishment of the first one, the dispensaries now conducted by the nursing department of the settlement have been vital factors and have played prominent parts in the local movement for the prevention of disease. Institutions of this kind to the number of eight now are maintained by the settlement, they being located at Kaili-ha-na school, Kaili-ha-na lane, Royal school, Kakaako Mission, St. Mary's Mission, Mollili, Punahele and Kaili-ha-na school.

A trained nurse will be placed in charge of the dispensary at Waikiki and will spend her time partly in the dispensary and partly in visiting the homes of the residents of the district with a view to locating disease and preventing its spread, working in co-operation with the board of health. Special attention is to be given tuberculosis. Headworker Rath says that the settlement has in mind the establishment of other dispensaries in different parts of Honolulu, these to be located as the city develops and spreads out.

Headworker Rath returned from the settlement's fresh air camp at Kapaeha yesterday afternoon and reports the work there to be progressing most favorably. Tenement mothers to the number of 8, and their 38 children, now are enjoying a two weeks' vacation on the windward side. Through the Star-Bulletin Mr. Rath personally expresses his thanks for the support which the press and the public has given this new movement. The settlement hopes to make it a permanent feature of its work.

PRESIDENT AND MAYORS WILL DINE ON HAWAIIAN PINEAPPLES AUGUST 15

The president of the United States and the mayors of 20 of the largest cities on the mainland have been asked to eat Hawaiian pineapple August 15, Hawaii's "Pineapple Day." H. P. Wood stated this morning that these requests have been sent out by the Promotion Committee as one of the last steps in that organization's plan to secure a national observance of the occasion.

Incidentally, several cans of Hawaii's choicest pineapple pack are to be sent to these executives in order that they might assist the islands in celebrating the day. Information being received by the Promotion Committee by every mail indicates that large wholesale and retail grocery concerns throughout the United States will make special displays of the fruit, both fresh and canned, August 15, and also that hotels, steamships and railway dining cars in all parts of the mainland will serve Hawaiian pineapple on that day.

WRAY AND BRISSAC PLAN TO RETURN TO HONOLULU IN FALL

According to recent letters received in Honolulu by friends of John Wray and Virginia Brissac they expect to pay a visit to this city the latter part of September or early in November, bringing with them a number of the old favorites of the company and probably a few new faces. Incidentally, preparatory to their next invasion of Hawaii nei they are putting on a new line of shows, including many of the new live stock offerings.

Among the recent productions in which this company has scored a big success are: "Alma, Where Do You Live," "Stop Thief," "Ready Money," "Your Neighbor's Wife," "The County Chairman," "The College Widow," "The Deserters," and "Puddin'head Wilson."

Among the familiar names appearing in the cast in the above mentioned productions are the Nugents, Evelyn Hamby, Harry Garrity and James Dillon, not to forget Mr. Wray and Miss Brissac.

THE STAGE IN TURKEY

CONSTANTINOPLE—In proof of the new spirit now stirring the Turkish people, the foreigners here cite the sudden interest taken in the stage. Many well-known plays, including "La Dame aux Camelias," have been translated into Turkish for production. Some of Moliere's comedies and dramatizations of Sherlock Holmes's stories are also booked.

It is comparatively few years ago that Constantinople had a few houses of amusement of the poorest class, of which the best was a degenerate circus. Now, with Mr. Antoine, the famous Parisian director in charge of the Conservatoire of Constantinople, some fine productions may be expected. Native writers are also exercising their hands at the drama.
